Summary of reasons for decision:

The computer image file contains an explicit depiction of a naked girl posed to show her genitals. It promotes and supports the exploitation of children or young persons for sexual purposes and is deemed to be objectionable. The image is evidence of sexual exploitation. Its purpose is to titillate or arouse people with a sexual interest in girls. Publications such as this encourage viewers to see girls as sexually desirable and available for adult sexual gratification. The effect is to strengthen this sexual interest and encourage sexual exploitation.

The publication's classification interferes with the freedom of expression as set out in s14 of the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990, but this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention to limit the availability of publications that promote and support the exploitation of children or young persons for sexual purposes.
